

Udobi Campbell, PharmD, MBA

Recipient of the 2020 Milton W. Skolaut Leadership Award

Udobi Campbell, PharmD, MBA has been the Regional Director of Pharmacy for the Triangle West region of UNC Health, since January 2, 2020. She also serves as the Executive Associate Dean for Clinical Practice at the UNC Eshelman School of Pharmacy. Before joining UNC Health, Dr. Campbell was a 12-year employee of Duke University Hospital, where she held multiple senior leadership roles in both the inpatient and outpatient pharmacy service platforms.

Dr. Campbell obtained her Doctor of Pharmacy degree from Florida A&M University in Tallahassee, FL, in 1998. She subsequently pursued and completed her Pharmacy Practice Residency at Duke University Medical Center in 2001. In 2007, she earned a Master of Business Administration degree and a Health Sector Management certificate from Duke University Fuqua School of Business.

Dr. Campbell is an active participant in local and national pharmacy organizations and has a strong interest in developing other leaders.

Keynote Address

Maintaining A Growth Mindset

Udobi Campbell, PharmD, MBA

Regional Director of Pharmacy – UNC Health

Executive Associate Dean for Clinical Practice – UNC
Eshelman School of Pharmacy

Duke Pharmacy Practice Residency Class of 2001

DukeHealth

