

Duke University Hospital

PGY2 Infectious Diseases Pharmacy Residency

| Key   | July  | August                                    | September                         | October                   | November                | December                          | January                        | February            | March  | April                       | May                    | June                 |
|---|---|---|-----------------------------------|---------------------------|-------------------------|-----------------------------------|--------------------------------|---------------------|--|-----------------------------|------------------------|----------------------|
| Example Rotation Schedule   | Orientation   | ASP/micro                                 | ID Consult I                      | Ambulatory ID/HIV         | Transplant ID Consult I | Elective                          | ID Consult II                  | Peds ID             | Consultant ASP   | Transplant ID Consult II    | ASP II                 | Elective             |
| Longitudinal Rotation Schedule  | ASP / PCN Skin Testing  |   |                                   |                           |                         |                                   |                                |                     |  |                             |                        |                      |
|   | ID Practice Management [NC Statewide ID Pharmacy Conference (bi-monthly) & Landmark Trials (bi-weekly)] |   |                                   |                           |                         |                                   |                                |                     |  |                             |                        |                      |
|   | ID/OPAT Clinic  |   |                                   |                           |                         |                                   |                                |                     |  |                             |                        |                      |
| Professional Development Experiences  | Staffing Orientation  | NCAP Residency Conference                 | Vizient AMS Committee Meetings    | IDSA IDWeek               | DASON / DICON Symposium | ASHP Midyear Clinical Meeting     | NC Anti-infectives Conferences |                     | DASON Podcast  | REPS                        | MAD-ID                 |                      |
| Presentations & Lectures  |   |   | ACPE Grand Rounds                 | ID Division Journal Club  | Duke SOM Lecture        | Vizient HotTopic Newsletter       | UNC Lecture                    | ACPE Case Present.  | IP Journal Club  | REPS CE to Dept of Pharmacy | Peds ID Fellow Lecture |                      |
| Research Project-Related Activities   | Begin Research Project  | Meet with Research Committee Statistician | IRB Submission Due                |                           |                         |                                   |                                | MAD-ID Abstract Due | Data AnalysisDevelop research project for incoming ID resident | Manuscript Draft            | Final Manuscript       |                      |
| Meetings  |   |   | Quarterly Resident Lunch with CPO | Quarterly Report with RPD |                         | Quarterly Resident Lunch with CPO | Quarterly Report with RPD      |                     | Quarterly Resident Lunch with CPO                                  | Quarterly Report with RPD   |                        | Certificate Ceremony |
| Other   | BLS / ACLS Training   |   |                                   |                           |                         |                                   | Residency Candidate Interviews |                     |  |                             |                        |                      |
| Staffing: Every 3rd weekend (decentralized clinical staffing in medicine & surgery with ASP opportunities)   |   |   |                                   |                           |                         |                                   |                                |                     |  |                             |                        |                      |
| Additional: Monthly resident meetings led by Chief Resident, Departmental/Clinical Staff Meetings, Teaching Certificate (optional), Serve on Anti microbial Stewardship Formulary Evaluation Team (monthly), ASET Workgroup (weekly), ID Grand Rounds (weekly), ID Fellow Case Conference (weekly), ID Fellow Journal Club (weekly), Pharmacy Noon Conference (weekly) |   |   |                                   |                           |                         |                                   |                                |                     |  |                             |                        |                      |
| Elective Options: Research, BMT, Solid Organ Transplant, Critical Care, Advanced experience of any core rotation ( i.e. ASP + Advanced Precepting)  |   |   |                                   |                           |                         |                                   |                                |                     |  |                             |                        |                      |